Sinking $35,000,000 Stock Boom Still Boils Higher Cotton, Good News The Brain Grows

Current Events

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1924, by Star Company.)

THIS GOVERNMENT had paid thirty-five million dollars toward the building of a magnificent battleship to be named The Washington.

Then came that arms conference at Washington where Europeans and Asiatics pulled the wool over the eyes of our innocent so-called "statesmen." We agreed to stop building ships, because it wasn't convenient or possible for the other nations to build them.

Not only that, but we agreed to destroy boats already in existence and, among other things, to sink, unfinished, The Washington and the $35,000,000 already spent on her.

A SUIT has been brought as the "citizen and taxpayer" by Mr. William B. Shearer to prevent the destruction of this boat. There will be a hearing on Friday, and unless the court forbids it, the great unfinished battleship will be sunk on Saturday.

HOW DOES that impress you, sending to the bottom of the ocean $35,000,000 of the taxpayers' money, to oblige Europeans and Asiatics who can't afford to build ships, and therefore wheedle our silly officials into weakening this country.

IN THE fable of the fox with his tail cut off, the other foxes laughed, and declined to oblige him by cutting their tails off, too.

But poor old Uncle Sam is persuaded to sink or junk his best ships and this in spite of the fact that European and Asiatic nations have not kept their agreement. On the contrary, nations that were represented at the Washington conference are at this moment building new, fast battle cruisers, many of them.

THE STOCK MARKET boom still boils. More than two and one-half million shares were sold yesterday, following a series of two million share days. If the general citizen shares the prosperity of the stock broker, this will be a prosperous country.

CALL MONEY with which men speculate is cheap, only 2 per cent. Cotton was strong again yesterday, and that is important news to all the country. "Spot sales" on Southern markets have gone up recently from 25,000 to 50,000 bales a day. Heavy exports are expected this month and next.

A good price for cotton means solid prosperity.

THE RUSSIAN government alone plans to import this year 336,000 bales of American cotton, to say nothing of $200,000,000 of American machinery.

If that continues, the United States will probably decide to frustrate France and England and recognize Russia after all. Money talks, even Bolshevik money, when it's gold.

MORE DIFFERENT kinds of stocks were purchased yesterday than were ever sold before in many a day.

One stock, United States Steel, which in the good old days of its babyhood was selling around $10 a share, sold at $115.

Five hundred and fifty different stocks altogether were bought and sold.

THE HUMAN BRAIN is capable of unlimited development, and there is no such thing as overwork for a brain properly developed. Thinking with intense concentration makes the brain actually grow at any age. The latest proof is the increase of one-quarter of an inch in the size of Lloyd George's head since 1903.

A quarter of an inch makes a great difference when the space is filled with the right kind of brain matter.

Also, thinking changes and increases the size of the nose, de-

WOBURN GIRL OF 14 SHOT TO DEATH

'Super Sheik's' Love Letters

GIRL OF 14 KILLED IN QUARREL

Woburn Father Arrested; Says She Shot Herself in Argument Over Bed Scarf

Shot through the head, following a quarrel today with her father because she bought a bright tobacco, Laura Capron, fourteen years old, of No. 33 Centre street, Woburn, is dead.

Her father, Michael Capron, fifty, a landscape gardener, is held at Woburn police headquarters for questioning.

The girl shot herself, according to the father.

Because he showed signs of having been drinking, Woburn police hesitated to fully credit his story and sent for State police investigators.

POLICE DOUBT STORY.

Medical Examiner Vernon C. Stewart viewed the body and immediately began a minute examination to determine by the nature of the wound the true story of the little girl's death.

The girl's head was pierced by a .38 calibre bullet, fired from a revolver which the father kept in the house. The slug entered just above the right ear and death was apparently instantaneous.

"We had an argument about a new scarf my daughter bought," Capron told the police.

SHOT HERSELF, HE SAYS.

"Laura grew very angry. She went to the mantelpiece, took down the revolver and shot herself before I could prevent it."

James Tedesco and William Stygles, while passing, heard the sound of voices raised in heated argument, the Capron house being close to the sidewalk. Next they heard the shot.

Both men dashed into the house. They found the girl on the floor of the living-room. Stygles notified the police.

In an adjoining room they found Capron, who stayed with them until Patrolman Alonzo O'Brien took him to headquarters.

TRAIL OF BEAUTIFUL WOMEN IN DEATH HUNT

Los Angeles, Nov. 12 (INS).—Following a trail strewn with precious stones and conquests of beautiful women, police moved today in their efforts to solve the murder of Harry Le Katz, music master, art collector and diamond broker. Katz, shot down in his apartment, was a victim of a feud involving a trade in jewels. Katz dealt extensively with Mrs. Theresa Mors, antique dealer, for whose murder Norman Shirley, ("Kid McCoy") is awaiting trial here.

Letters from Mme. Rosita Marcini, Belgian motion picture actress, were found in Katz's apartment.

HIDE MAN IN KLAN PROBE

Holloway, Suspected in Death of Travers at Whitefield, Guarded by Police

Whitefield, N. H., Nov. 12.—Failure of the authorities investigating the murder of James Travers, foe of the Ku Klux Klan, to produce John Holloway, arrested as a fugitive, was regarded today as an indication that they hold the situation here between the Klan and anti-Klan forces to be extremely grave.

They have escorted Holloway and refuse to make known his hiding place, although it is believed to be in Berlin.

Meanwhile, the bitterness grows hourly as fresh developments are listed in the strange case. This discovery of two more murders which may have been connected with the Travers affair have fanned the flames of resentment.

HOLD CONFERENCE.

One of the new murders was that of George Davis, lumberjack, who was shot to death in the woods near the town of Errol. The other was the killing at North Stratford of a second lumberjack. These may have been merely the results of woods feuds or they may have an important bearing in the investigation into the death of Travers.

Public inquiries was given to the investigation by the entrance into it of Attorney-General Hinckley. He held a conference of State forces at Concord at which Carl Holloway was also present.

Although no official report of the findings made by Dr. Kingsford after his examination of the organs taken from Travers' body has been made, it is said he discovered only a minute quantity of alcohol in the man's stomach.

This fact is held to be significant by those studying the case. They hold that the absence of alcohol in the stomach proves Travers was slain by poison or some other means before his body was thrown into the water.

TWO CIRCLES BURNED.

The county is filled with wild rumors of Klan and anti-Klan outbreaks. Immediately following the Armistice Day parade of the Berlin American Legion in which 1,500 veterans participated, the flaming circle was fired on Mount Jasper, a mile and a half from Berlin.

Several score of soldiers rushed to the mountain in automobiles. They found the symbol, a circle within a circle, erected on top of a sixteen-foot pole. The two circles had been wrapped with oil-soaked burlap before being set on fire. The circles were permitted to burn out.

Less than a week ago, a klan cross was fired on Mount Forest, about the same distance from Berlin as Mount Jasper, IA that time, the brush surrounding the blazing cross was riddled with bullets fired from revolvers and rifles of anti-klansmen.

Mrs. Mary Holloway, mother of the suspect, is in Whitefield waiting

Leopold and Loeb Teachers Behind Prison Walls

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, serving life sentences in the Joliet penitentiary for the kidnaping murder of Robert Franks, will be members of the faculty of the prison, Warden Whitman announced.

Leopold is teaching night classes in English, devoting two hours a night in instruction in reading, writing and spelling. Next week Loeb will take charge of an arithmetic class.

The duties will be in addition to their jobs in the prison shops.

MANY NATIONS HONOR LODGE AT FUNERAL

Henry Cabot Lodge, scholar, author and statesman, went to his final resting place today.

Following the beautiful, yet simple, Episcopal services in old Christ Church, Cambridge, he took his place with the little coterie of immortals who sleep in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Although the funeral was devoid of pomp and ostentation, it was one of the most impressive that has ever taken place in New England.

In the small Colonial church where Washington worshipped, and which was literally smothered in floral tributes, were crowded scores of dignitaries of nation, state and foreign lands.

1,000 AROUND CHURCH.

Outside were nearly 1,000 persons, unable to obtain entrance to the little edifice, but who nevertheless were anxious to pay their respects to the departed Senator.

A touching feature was the presence among the mourners of the Lodge servants, who followed the immediate family into and out of the church in the last act of devotion they could perform for the master who had left them.

At 12:05 o'clock the body was borne down the center aisle, preceded by Bishop William Lawrence and the Rev. Prescott Evarts, rector of the church. The rich, trained voice of the bishop rose and fell over the hushed assembly in the words of the Episcopal service for the dead.

Behind the clergymen walked the members of the family and the servants, a somber little group, garbed in black.

NO FORMAL EULOGY.

On arrival at the chancel the Rev. Mr. Evarts read the fifteenth chapter of St. Paul to the Corinthians. There was no eulogy.

Following the reading of the committal service by Bishop Lawrence, the choir sang:

"The Son of God Goes Forth to War, a Kingly Crown to Gain," and the brief service ended.

FILE PAST CASKET.

The spectators filed past the casket in a last silent tribute, and it was then borne to the street and escorted to the cemetery.

The ushers were James T. Williams, Jr., Francis L. Higginson, Jr., Louis A. Coolidge, Charles Redmond, W. Gordon Means and George C. Lee.

The state delegation consisted of Governor Channing H. Cox, Ad-

PONZI JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Defendant Released on Bail; No Decision Yet as to a Possible New Trial

The jury in the trial of Charles Ponzi, after eleven hours' deliberation, reported to Judge Bishop in Superior Court today they had been unable to agree on a verdict.

Asked by the court if they had agreed on any one of the indictments, or any count or part, the foreman replied they had not.

Judge Bishop then ordered the jury discharged, but after they had left their seats recalled them. He said that yesterday he had directed a verdict of not guilty on one of the five indictments, and on his direction the jury went through the formality of bringing in this verdict.

FIVE INDICTMENTS.

Ponzi went on trial last Wednesday on five indictments charging him with the larceny of $19,899. He acted as his own attorney throughout the case and told the jury that while he had $9,000,000 in 1920, he was at present unable to retain a lawyer.

Judge Bishop instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty on one indictment alleging larceny of $1,600, as no evidence had been offered by the government to support it. These instructions were overruled by the jury during deliberations.

After the report of the jury's disagreement, Ponzi was released in the bonds of $25,000, under which he was held for trial following his discharge from Plymouth jail.

PONZI TELLS OF CASE.

Assistant District Attorney Deland said it would be several months before Ponzi could be brought to trial again—"if he ever is tried again."

Ponzi, before leaving the courtroom with his wife, Rose, went to the bench and thanked Judge Bishop for his fairness during the trial. Later, in a talk with newspaper men, Ponzi told how he had made preparations to act as his own lawyer during the time that he was in Plymouth County Jail.

"I was a constant visitor to the law library at the jail," he said, "and studied rules on evidence and cases which dealt particularly with my

WANTED 1000 KISSES A SECOND

Super Sheik Is Exposed by Wife No. 2 and Defended by No. 1

Joseph Fournier of Shrewsbury was revealed as a "mile-a-minute" sheik, whose high speed craving called for 1,000 kisses per second in the letters he wrote to seventeen-year-old Iona Mitchell of Chicopee Falls and formerly of Holliston.

Joseph, a musician in the Worcester Brigade Band, married Iona, according to testimony in Framingham court, while already married and the father of two children.

CASE CONTINUED.

Wife No. 1 pleaded her love for him and begged that he be set free. No. 2, after telling of the automobile "pickup" that led to his alleged wooing and marriage last June, admitted that she, too, loved him still.

"Loving Joe" case was continued for a week and he went home with No. 1. No. 2 gathered up a packet of love letters and left the court sadder but wiser.

EXCERPTS FROM LETTERS.

Here are some excerpts from the letters:

"Just a long and sweet loving letter. I am writing to you to let you know that I got your letter of the 14th and believe me my heart filled right up when I took it out and saw the small box. I took it out and kissed it before I opened it to read it. You can't imagine how I feel to hear from a nice little darling like you.

"Don't forget when I get off the train I want your lips to taste like a box of chocolates. I am very anxious to see you, sweetheart, because I feel so lonesome at times. I do think a lot of you.

"Say, I took a walk to Shrewsbury Centre all alone this morning to get the license, and I only wish I had you with me. I am sending it with this letter and don't forget to answer this so I can tell you I got it safe.

"Good-bye, Sweetheart. May God bless us both. Hoping to see you soon. Lots of kisses for you. Twenty X's—meaning kisses."

SENDS MANY X'S.

In another letter Fournier wrote:

"How is everything with you? I am thinking of you every day. I am just getting home and I didn't even take time to eat, so you see I am thinking of you always. I hope you do the same of me. I know you do. Hello, Sweetheart—you are a darling.

"Twelve X's all for you dear."

That excerpt by the way is from a note written from Shrewsbury, where Iona says he was living with Wife No. 1.

In a letter from Lowell in February of this year, Fournier wrote:—

"Well, I got to my old home town safe and sound last night and everything went all right. It seemed quite lonesome not to have you riding beside me in the car. I was thinking of you all the way down—but never mind; the time is going quite fast out here. It can't go any too fast for me just now. If nothing happens, I'll see you tomorrow night sure.

"Don't worry about me, because I am all safe and sound and I think of you always, and I know you do the same about me. Well, you know there will be a time when you and I will be together forever. I hope that will be soon. Honey, you know that I think the world of you and I will be more than happy when you and I will be married and be happy.

SKETCHES HEART.

"You know when I met you I said to myself that some day that dear little sweetheart would be with me forever. Spring will soon be here, and we shall have some good times together.

"Well, dear, I will be glad to see you and don't worry because I know it makes you feel blue and it does me. Good-bye, from a true friend, Twelve X's."

At the end of this note Fournier had sketched a pierced heart and wrote in pencil: "Giving my heart to you."

COOLIDGE TO DEFER TAX LAW REVISION

Washington, Nov. 12.—The administration has no present intention of pressing for tax legislation at the coming short session of Congress, it became known today, after Secretary Mellon had conferred with President Coolidge. It is understood Mr. Mellon does not consider it practical to take up the problem at this session because of the lack of time, and in view of other difficulties. The administration has not given any consideration so far to the calling of a special session of the new Congress after next March 4 to consider tax reduction.

Church Asks License to Radio Coming of Millenium

Washington, Nov. 12 (I.N.S.).—The most unusual application for a broadcasting license that government officials have had to deal with was being considered today at the Department of Commerce.

The People's Pulpit Association of Rensselville, N. Y., of which John D. Rutherford, of Brooklyn, is the head, has applied for a permit to broadcast on a 1,500 watt power basis, in order to inform the country of the approaching millenium, which Rutherford told officials was due next year.

FARM PROBLEM ECONOMIC, SAYS HEAD OF GRANGE

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 12.—Declaring the problems of the farmer are economic and not political, Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, in addressing the annual meeting today, urged the 800,000 members to seek a cure for their trouble through adherence to sound business principles rather than by legislation. Self-help and not governmental help will secure real prosperity, he said.

Mr. Taber said that during the last three years farm values had shrunk $20,000,000,000, and that during 1923 over 1,100,000 tillers of the soil had left the farm and there probably were more during last year.

WELLESLEY BOY BITTEN BY DOG WITH RABIES

5-Year-Old Theodore Hanks Attacked When He Tries to Pet the Animal

Five-year-old Theodore Hanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Hanks of No. 211 Weston road, Wellesley, was given the Wasserman test at his home today, when it became known that a dog which bit him in the forehead as he stooped to pat it, had rabies.

The dog tore a wound in the lad's forehead. The animal was later shot by Patrolman David Gallery of the Wellesley police department and the head sent to the Harvard laboratories, which reported today unmistakable indications of rabies. William A. Stanton of No. 26 O'Connell avenue, Wellesley, owned the dog.

Mrs. Hanks was with "Teddy" in the garden of their home when he started to play with the dog. As he leaned over the animal leaped and sunk his teeth in the youngster's forehead in a spot regarded as especially dangerous because it affords communication to the nerve centres of the body.

Mrs. Hanks is head of the Chicago Wool Company, with a Boston office on Summer street. He and Mrs. Hanks are socially prominent in Wellesley.

CONSUL'S LOVE SUIT TO BE PROBED BY HUGHES

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Hearing of the divorce action brought by Mrs. Edree Plata against Mithridates Plata, Peruvian Consul at Chicago, in which she charged him with misconduct with Adele Salter, Seattle dancer, was postponed for one week here.

Meanwhile Mrs. Plata's attorney, Charles S. Wharton, is laying up more grief for Plata. He exhibited a letter from Washington in which it was shown that the State Department, under orders from the White House, is investigating Plata.

INSANE PATIENTS DANCE AND HOWL IN FIRE PANIC

Towson, Md., 12 (I. N. S.).—Fire today destroyed the $75,000 barn of the Enoch Pratt hospital for insane and threatened 120 patients in an adjoining building. Ninety nurses were called to maintain order and were helped by members of the County Fire and Police Departments.

Despite all precaution, some patients in the wards for violent cases sensed the danger and screamed, laughed and danced it took an hour to restore quite.

12 GAMBLERS PAY $170 FINES FOR 60-CENT POT

Salem, Nov. 12.—Although twelve men arrested in a gambling raid had only sixty cents on the table when the police arrived, they paid a total of $170 in fines in district court today. Eleven were fined $10 each for being present, while an additional fine of $50 was imposed on James M. Emjemy, proprietor of the coffee house at No. 24 Market street, where the raid occurred. The additional fine was for maintaining a gaming nuisance.

RUSH WATER TO SAVE COUNTY, ALL DRIED UP

New Orleans, La., Nov. 12.—Street sprinklers, tank cars and tank trucks were pressed into service today to convey drinking water to citizens of Saint Bernard Parish (County), south of New Orleans. Virtually every cistern in the parish is dry. Saint Bernard parish is Louisiana's greatest vegetable producer. The drying up of wells and creeks in nearly every part of the State is reported and the water famine has resulted in heavy losses of livestock.

FORD SELLS DETROIT REALTY FOR $1,000,000

Detroit, Nov. 12.—The Ford Motor Company has sold the corner of Woodward Avenue and Grand boulevard, a Detroit business corner, for a reported consideration of $1,000,000. This is the second recent important sale of real estate by the Ford Company, a large vacant plot opposite the Highland Park plant having been recently sold for $2,500,000.

WOOD, JR., HAS LOST HIS CASH, MANILA HEARS

Stocks and Bets Said to Have Made His Winnings Vanish

Manila, Nov. 12 (I.N.S.).—Reports were circulated here today that Osborne Wood, son of Governor General Wood, has lost most, if not all, of the huge winnings he was credited with having made in the stock market several months ago.

According to the reports, Wood suffered reverses in Shanghai stock deals and lost considerable sums through practice of making bets on special trains on which he traveled.

JOHN "BUCKY" KANE, TELEGRAPHER, DIES

John (Bucky) Kane, a telegrapher employed by the Western Union, died at his home in South Boston today after a short illness. He was thirty years of age, and is survived by his widow and one child, "Bucky," who was known throughout Boston for his physique, was engaged by newspapers when sporting events of importance were held, to announce play-by-play reports.

DERELECT BELIEVED NOT LEIF ERICCSON

Washington, Nov. 12.—A derelict reported to the Navy Department as having been sighted in the path taken by the missing yacht Leif Ericsson, for which the cruiser Trenton is searching in the North Atlantic, was located as early as Sept. 5, the Department was informed today, and therefore could hardly be the wreck of the missing yacht.

UNCLE SAM TIGHTENS UP ON CANADIAN BORDER

Washington, Nov. 12.—The United States Immigration border patrol for the Canadian boundary is being recruited to its full strength, 450 men. The end of the Canadian harvest, immigration officials said, has found an increasing number of persons attempting to come into this country illegally, and precautions are being made against this drive.

for the authorities to bring her son there. She insisted that she had a perfect alibi for her son—that he was with her throughout election day and was at her home that night—and was not in Whitefield during the day or night of the murder of Travers.

Holloway's explanation of his presence near the Dube home on last Friday night, when an effort to enter the Dube home was made, is also borne out in part by the statement of H. W. Ball, owner of a garage located near the Dube home.

Holloway told the authorities, when arrested in Lynn, that he drove to the garage on last Friday night to have a battery repaired.

Ball, who purchased the garage on election day, says that Holloway came to his place of business last Friday night about 9:30.

"I knew Holloway from serving him for two years at another garage," says Ball. "He was surprised to see me—didn't know me at first. He wanted a battery for his car while his battery was being recharged. I told him I had no serviceable batteries and told him to go to another garage. He drove off and returned in a few minutes and told me he couldn't get a battery. He called to me that he would see me again and then disappeared. I closed up shortly afterward and went home. I never saw Holloway afterward. When I knew Holloway he was always honest and a good man to do business with."

FILES LOVE THEFT SUIT AGAINST MAN, DAUGHTER

That a Waltham man and one of his daughters enticed a married man to come to their home with another daughter is the charge made in an alienation of affections suit filed in the Superior Court, East Cambridge. Mrs. Concettina Benatte of Waltham is the plaintiff. She sues John Mandile and his daughter, Miss Maria Mandile, of Waltham for $30,000, alleging they alienated the affections of her husband, Dominick, and induced him to leave her and go to their home on account of Miss Generosa Mandile.

own. Of course during the trial I made mistakes and found it hard to bring out different parts of the evidence. But with the kindly assistance of Judge Bishop and the forbearance on the part of Assistant Attorney Deland I managed to get in most of the evidence."

Ponzi repeated his assertion he was innocent of any criminal intent.

"I was perfectly willing," he said, "to have one judge decide whether or not I was guilty of criminal intent. In fact, I suggested that one judge dispose of the case. This was made impossible because a man cannot waive his constitutional right to a trial by jury."

Mr. Deland made public a letter which he received during the trial from some Italian girls. It reads:

"Please don't forget the poor Italian girls in the candy factories, who gave all their savings to Ponzi to invest on his promise that he would pay more interest than the banks.

"Ponzi and his agents have the money to pay back, for his agents are living in comfort while we look to you for help."

WOMAN, CHAMPION TURKEY RAISER, IS SUING FOR 11 YEARS' PAY

CONCORD AWAITS FIRST SHOT IN COMING LEGAL FIGHT

Margaret Mahaney's big bronze gobblers are homesick.

Down on a farm in Rhode Island, the country's prize strutters, raised and owned by America's famous "turkey woman," are anxiously awaiting Thanksgiving in other hands.

Meanwhile the town of Concord listens for the opening gun which shall touch off the legal battle of its favorite daughter against George Albree of Lexington road, Concord, wealthy gentleman farmer.

Gone from the white-washed houses which dot the Albree estate are the gobbling birds which brought fame to their mistress from Portland, Me., to Portland, Ore.

"Tom," prize bird of the famed flock, is sojourning with friends on the Pacific Coast while Miss Margaret Mahaney settles her legal difficulties. "Throughout the rest of the country others of the feathered thoroughbreds are being cared for by their owner's friends."

'TURKEY AUTHORITY.'

Miss Mahaney, author of many books on turkey raising, has started what promises to be one of the most dramatic legal affairs in years in a civil suit against Albree, which shall turn the spotlight upon the already complex Albree home.

In Miss Mahaney's suit for $13,000 against Albree, in which she declares he defrauded her out of eleven years' wages, other charges are intimated.

Miss Mahaney severed her connections with Albree last July, after spending twenty-two years in his employ, during which time, after her day's work was over, she raised herself from obscurity to one of the best-known figures in American agriculture.

"I have given over twenty of the best years of my life to George Albree, declares Miss Mahaney. "I went to his home as a young girl and for twenty-two years gave my strength and energy to making it one of the show places of the town.

DEVELOPED BUSINESS.

"Eleven years ago he declared he had become bankrupt. 'But you will get every dollar I owe you,' he promised. And so I continued to stay there when I had already developed a profession which needed all my time.

"I devoted myself to the scientific raising of turkeys. I developed the best strain of turkeys for this country. I fought the diseases against which agricultural colleges said they were powerless.

"I never killed a turkey—just tended them and kept the foxes away from them and brought them up my pets. They were children and family to me. I never sold them except for breeding.

"I never made any use of the Albree estate that I did not pay for. What work I had done there for myself I hired men to do it.

TO GET "JUSTICE."

"My break with George Albree came when he flatly refused to pay me the money he owed me. I mean to have justice in court.

"Everyone in Concord knows me. They know what I have done, and they know George Albree. The notoriety cannot touch me.

"I am going to buy a farm and start in all over again—get my birds back from their temporary places all over the country. I shall leave my home and all that I have to the profession of husbandry."

Miss Mahaney is the holder of several gold medals awarded her for her prize turkeys.

RUM PARTIES CHARGED AT DEER ISLAND

Commissioner Johnson to Reply to Bates Allegations Today

Open drunkenness by both the officials and the prisoners confined at the state prison on Deer Island is one of the many startling charges made against the administration of the prison by Sanford Bates, State commissioner of corrections.

When Dr. David J. Johnson, commissioner of institutions, rushed into City Hall today after reading a copy of the charges made by Commissioner Bates his eyes flashed fire.

"I'll have something to say very shortly. As soon as I get time to put it down in writing," announced Dr. Johnson. He started work immediately upon a reply to the charges.

MANY CHARGES.

A deputy commissioner in the office of the city department of institutions is accused of many offenses. Among other things charged against this official in the report are:

Choking a deputy master at Deer Island in the presence of inmates.

Threatening physical violence to deputy master at Deer Island in the presence of inmates.

Overruling authorities at the Island when they attempted to enforce disciplinary measures.

Exploiting the drug addicts, colored men and other prisoners, for his amusement and the amusement of his friends.

The report also charges that certain prisoners at Deer Island have the freedom of the city boat and go to and from Boston at all hours of the day and night, not in uniform, and in perfect freedom.

DESTROYS DISCIPLINE.

Unsanitary quarters, lack of discipline, interference between officials, and drunkenness are also mentioned as existing on the island and destroying the discipline of the institution.

The report specifically charges that on May 29, this year, a deputy commissioner from the city Department of Institutions went to Deer Island and in the presence of inmates engaged in a personal encounter with a deputy master of the island and seized the deputy master by the throat, exerting physical violence upon him.

On several occasions this official from the City Hall has entered into loud arguments with the master at Deer Island and threatened violence to the master if he drew his gun. All this, it is charged, took place in the presence of prisoners.

One sensational paragraph in the report alleges that the City Hall official against whom so many offenses are charged has staged baseball games between the drug addicts and the negro prisoners on the island for his own amusement and the amusements of his friends, and at these games has led the cheering and urged the prisoner-spectators to sing "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here."

"Other instances could be given," reads the report, "but the foregoing is enough to demonstrate the low ebb which the discipline has reached at this institution. The cause is not far to see. No penal institution can be managed where the authority is divided and when the inmates soon learn that the persons directly in charge of their discipline have only limited or qualified authority. For this situation the department at City Hall is directly responsible.

"The Commissioner of Corrections is confident that the master at Deer Island is sincerely attempting to improve conditions but is handicapped by the interference from the city department."

ILLEGALLY FREED.

Bates declared that he has evidence in his possession showing that political aims "affecting the election of one of the candidates for Governor" were made by the prisoners, under direction of the officials, and out of material furnished by the House of Correction.

FALLS 40 FEET IN A TANK IN EAST BOSTON

Worker, Not Missed for Hours, Found Unconscious and Dying

As the result of a plunge of forty feet to the bottom of the massive Standard Oil Company tanks at the Chelsea street plant in East Boston, George Murphy, twenty-one years old, unmarried, of No. 174 Avenue B., Bayonne, N. J., is dying in the East Boston Relief Hospital.

With his brother Joseph and some other expert tank repairers, Murphy was sent to East Boston several days ago to make repairs. The group worked at usual and when the five o'clock whistle blew, Murphy was the only man at work inside the tank. The tank was dry.

The other tank experts went to their rooming house on Chelsea street and did not miss George Murphy until four hours later.

Checking up they found no one saw him leave the oil company's plant and they hurried to the big tank. Then one of the searchers was lowered down inside the giant container and found Murphy unconscious.

The injured man was hoisted to the top and then taken to the hospital where Dr. B. C. Drouder found he had a fractured skull, two broken arms and, possibly, internal injuries.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED AFTER GIVING CHARITY

James Goodwin of Hanson street, South End, extended charity to an acquaintance today and in consequence was struck in the jaw and robbed of $61. Patrolman Heaney arrested George Jones, Acton street, and Thomas Patanude of Newland street, charged with the robbery. Goodwin said he met the two men, one of whom, Patanude, he knew. Patanude told him a hard luck story and Goodwin gave him $1.50. In doing so he exposed his bankroll.

BEVERLY MAN DROPS DEAD AT UNITED SHOE PLANT

Beverly, Nov. 12.—Excitement was caused in the plant of the United Shoe Machinery Company today by the collapse and sudden death of a workman, Richard Hanan, sixty years old, of No. 23 Blaine avenue. The company physician, George A. Stickney, who is also medical examiner, attributed heart trouble as the cause. Hanan is survived by his wife and two daughters.

ARTHUR D. COOPER IS BANKRUPTCY TRUSTEE

Arthur D. Cooper, lawyer, was named today as trustee in bankruptcy for the firm of A. W. Jones & Co., wholesale millinery, 8 Chauncy street. Mr. Cooper will proceed to wind up the affairs of the firm.

Pet Parrot Grieves Itself Sick Over Death of Wallace

Washington, Nov. 12.—Despondent and drooping, Polly, pet parrot of the late Secretary Wallace, today showed symptoms of grieving itself sick over the loss of its master.

Given to the secretary by Dr. W. M. Mann, a department entomologist, the parrot, a rare Bolivian specimen, became the constant companion and confidante of Mr. Wallace during office hours. It would fly to his shoulder while he sat at his desk and, when he was not there, waited eagerly for his step. It never learned to talk, but set up a great racket each morning as the master approached.

TRY POLICEMAN FOR CHASING WRONG AUTO

As a result of doing his duty as he saw it, Patrolman Leo F. Duffy of the Roxbury Crossing station went before a trial board at police headquarters today.

At 8:45 a. m. election day Duffy saw an automobile with registration numbers which he thought were identical with those given him a short time previously as being on a stolen car, according to his story.

The policeman commandeered a machine and gave chase from Egleston square to Forest Hills, where he overhauled the other car and found there was one numeral different.

Duffy said he telephoned his station, reported what had happened and that he would be late getting in.

On arrival he was told to write out a report and later Captain Jeremiah Gallivan preferred charges against him.

MALDEN FORCES 'L' TO KEEP 5C BUS FARE

Clause in Franchise Prohibits Increases Unless With the Consent of City

Exercising a right which it granted when it gave a franchise to the Boston Elevated Railway Co., to operate buses in Malden, the City Council and the Board of Aldermen of that municipality turned thumbs down today on the request of the traction company to increase fares from five cents to six cents on the bus lines. The vote was unanimous.

A six-cent fare went into effect recently on the street car lines of the company in Malden and an attempt was made to put similar tariffs in effect on the buses. However, the franchise stipulated that no fare increases should be made on buses without the consent of the law makers of Malden.

MORE RESTRICTIONS.

The lawmakers today also stipulate that in future the Boston Elevated Company should make no further changes in its schedules without first conferring with and obtaining the approval of the City Council. The traction company was further instructed that it must advertise all radical changes before they are made.

This last order is intended to avert the recurrence of confusion such as followed the substitution of buses for street cars on Pleasant street, last Saturday.

NOT ANNOUNCED.

The change had not been announced in advance and caused considerable inconvenience to prospective passengers, some of whom waited half an hour or more for street cars until they realized that bus service had been substituted.

A resolution calling for a joint session of both bodies to discuss the traction situation some time in the near future, was adopted. It is likely that preceding the session there will be a public mass meeting at which citizens will be given an opportunity to give their views on the transit service.

SCREAMS DRIVE OFF 4 AUTO BANDITS

Flee Without Loot After Beating Malden Bank Cashier

Police throughout Greater Boston are searching for four bandits who escaped in a small sedan after an unsuccessful attempt to hold up and rob the banking office of the Workman's Progressive Credit Union at No. 472 Cross street, Malden.

The bandits believed the bank cashier, Philip Leonard, thirty-one years old, of 85 Eastern avenue, Malden, was alone in the bank when they entered. In the rear of the room, hidden from view was Jacob Mover, also of Eastern avenue.

One of the four pointed a pistol at Leonard and ordered him to hold up his hands. Leonard thrust down below the counter and seized a revolver. But the weapon refused to work and by the time Leonard, the armed man had entered the cage and jumped upon Leonard, beating him severely.

Mover, hearing the noise, began to scream and the bandits fled, leaving without their main booty.

NEW ENGLAND ELKS AMONG THOSE POISONED

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 12.—Practically New England was today suffering from ptomaine poisoning as a result of the Elks National Home. With the death of William H. Hutchinson of Corry, Pa., the total of fatalities reached nine since the New England men were under treatment at the hospital are: F. B. Merrill of Springfield, Mass.; William Clarkson of New Haven, Conn., and W. W. E. Murphy, Portsmouth, N. H.

Fourteen other members of the home are ill at least four seriously.

New York Church to Cure Tired Souls by Psycho-Analysis

New York, Nov. 12.—The Episcopal Church of St. Marks in the Bouwerie has taken up psycho-analysis.

Psychological guidance will be practiced in connection with the "body and soul, health and efficiency clinic" that was started by this church two years ago.

Experts in psychology and physiognomy will have charge of the undertaking.

The Rev. Guthrie Ehinladdo, who will have charge of the psychological department, says he will have "frank, amicable individual conferences to try and learn of disturbing private or public relations."

WANTS PADLOCK PUT ON DOCK SQUARE SALOON

Assistant United States Attorney Elihu D. Stone applied today for a padlocking order against a "soft drink" establishment at No. 54 Dock square. He cites the place a liquor nuisance and names Daniel C. Kenney and George V. Wood as proprietors. The Federal Development Company is named as owner of the property.

1,200 QUARTS OF BEER HIDDEN UNDER POTATOES

St. Albans, Vt., Nov. 12.—Twelve hundred quarts of beer were seized today when Collector of Customs Winchell discovered them buried under potatoes in bottom of potatoes. The conveyance in which they were shipped from Ellensburg, Now York and was consigned to S. Kenyon, 43 Canal street, New York City.

FIND 2 MORE MAINE RUM PLOTS

Bangor, Me., Nov. 12.—Two new Maine liquor smuggling conspiracies, greater than that uncovered in Washington County, were revealed today.

One was in Aroostook County, where nine arrests were made. The other was at Stockton, where an alleged rum runner was arrested following the wrecking of his automobile.

George Hosley, owner of a restaurant in Port Kent, broke away from a deputy as they went through the door, and has not been apprehended.

Others captured were Fred Charles Van Buren, restaurant owner; John B. Michaud and Ferdinand Wilbert of Frenchville, owners of a ferry of the St. John's River; Leander Chamberlain, Sylvio Albert and Patrick Raymond of Fronchville; Joseph Cyr, Van Buren cigar dealer.

Tithia Jellison of Bar Harbor, arrested in connection with the Washington County rum conspiracy, is a former policeman and police chief of Bar Harbor. He was arraigned today.

Today's arrest, which is expected to divulge another big liquor plot, was made after an auto was wrecked at Stockton. Alcohol valued at $5,000 was found in the car. The driver, giving his name as James Perry of Bangor, was arrested. The license plate on the car was issued to William G. Foley of Bangor. It is believed the man arrested gave a fictitious name.

TENOR MURRAY NAMES POLICEMAN IN LOVE SUIT

New York, Nov. 12.—Papers in a divorce action brought by William (Billy) Murray, tenor and actor, against his wife, Grace, have been filed. The pair were married in Brooklyn in November, 1914. They have no children.

In his complaint, Murray alleges that, while he was away from home during the Winter of 1923, his wife was friendly with William Coombs, a member of the police force.

YALE'S 'CAMPUS BEAUTY' TO BE ARRESTED

Rogers Death Mystery Takes New Angle With Discovery of Bloody Cloth

New Haven, Ct., Nov. 12 (Universal).—Discovery of a blood soaked towel and table napkin, buried under rocks and dry leaves, has cast a still more lurid glare across the mystery surrounding the death of Charles Rogers, who was riding with Miss Marjorie Schneider, the charming favorite of the Yale upper classmen, on the fatal night.

Prosecutor Church announced that no one result he will have Miss Schneider arrested at once.

This discovery sent the authorities today to reconstruct the tragedy on new angles.

Because the towel and napkin were found far back on the road from the scene where Miss Schneider called for help, saying Rogers had struck his head on a telephone pole, the authorities believe he received his injuries long before their car reached the spot where interested parties say he did.

The napkin was dried up in an irregular ball as if it had been clutched by a hand. The towel was folded as though it had been used as a mop to stop the flow of blood from a wound.

Both pieces of linen had evidently been taken from the road house where Rogers and his fair companion dined and where he had quarreled with a Yale student, who like himself, was a bidder for Marjorie's glances and favors.

GOV.-ELECT GORE TO SUCCEED WALLACE

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Coolidge has virtually decided upon the appointment of Howard M. Gore as Secretary of Agriculture, to serve until March 4, when he will become Governor of West Virginia. Gore is acting secretary.

Who Killed Him?

CHARLES ROGERS.

His death was first reported as accidental, during an auto ride. Now it is said he quarreled with a Yale student over Marjorie Schneider, a college favorite. New evidence points to murder.

SUMMER HEAT DISCOURAGES COAL MEN

No Need for Furnace Fires With Mercury Hovering at the 70 Mark

Coal men and others who profit by King Winter's cold breath were discouraged today as they watched the mercury in thermometers mount to marks usually reached only in the summer season.

The red liquid in the Weather Bureau thermometer atop the Postoffice Building showed climbing propensities early today and by noon had reached the line marked by the figures 70. And the mercury seemed eager to go farther upward.

Weather observers declared that if the sun breaks through the clouds the November heat record of 76 degrees may be shattered today.

The lines of rain recorder at the Weather Bureau was not sufficient to cool the atmosphere and did nothing but coat the pavements with a damp film that made automobiling dangerous.

Several persons were injured because of the slippery pavements.

TIED TO HER BED WITH STOCKING BY ROBBER

Greenwich Woman, Trapped in Hotel Room, Loses Many Diamonds

Greenwich, Ct., Nov. 12.—Her own stockings were used in the Miss Martha Meeker to the bedpost in her room at a hotel at the time she was robbed of a diamond ring and diamond brooch, the police said today in making known further details of the robbery.

Police reported yesterday that Miss Meeker had been sleeping in the hotel's crowded dormitories and her rings and earrings taken.

Today they said the thief ordered Miss Meeker to remove her shoes and stockings and then used the latter to tie her to a bedpost, warning her not to make an outcry.

The police believe the robber then had Miss Meeker under control for some time, as she is reported to be wealthy and the possessor of valuable jewels.

EMMA GOLDMAN BARRED PERMANENTLY FROM U. S.

Washington, Nov. 12 (U.N.S.).—Emma Goldman, Anarchist, who was deported to Russia in 1920 as an undesirable, has been permanently barred from the United States, the Department of Labor announced today.

Miss Goldman, who is in London, is quoted as expressing the [illegible] that she might again be permitted to return to this country.

Edward J. Dennings, Assistant Secretary of Labor, declared Miss Goldman had called upon him in Berlin during his recent European trip and said she would like to apologize to the American government for her utterances against its institutions and be permitted to take up her residence here again.

M. E. RICE CO.

A Chelsea Landmark

The late Mr. Rice, after coming to Chelsea, soon established a reputation as a progressive business man and therefore was noted for his high quality of the goods carried and for square dealing. It had a large family trade in the old Chelsea days and it carried charge accounts with a majority of customers. Two years after Mr. Rice came to Chelsea, the store was increased to twice it former size, being 120 feet deep and 40 feet wide. There are 15 or 16 departments for men and women. "You can get it at Rice's" has been a frequent remark for many years.

Since the death of Mr. Rice the business has been conducted successfully by Mr. Geo. W. Scott, who has followed the lines laid down by Mr.

TUGS ORDERED FOR WARSHIP GUNFIRE

Washington to Be Towed to Sea Unless Court Action tion Forbids It

Washington, Nov. 12.—Five naval tugs were ordered today to proceed to Philadelphia, November 15, for the purpose of towing the uncompleted battleship Washington to a point off the Virginia Capes, where it is to be destroyed in gunfire and mining tests.

The program is opposed in a suit pending in the District of Columbia Supreme Court, where an injunction restraining the department is being sought by William B. Shearer of New York.

Structure on the Washington up to date when work on her was stopped as a result of the Washington arms conference agreement, about a total cost to the government for the ship of $16,000,000, which had been reduced by sale of surplus material and other items, to $12,240,000. The Bureau of Construction and Repair estimated the Washington was 75.9 per cent. completed—or 85 per cent., as had been reported, when work was stopped in August, 1922.

RUM RUNNERS LAND BIG CARGOES IN FOG

New York, Nov. 12 (U.N.S.).—The first heavy fog of the season, blanketing the coast today from Chatham to Nantucket, demoralized barber traffic, delayed thousands of commuters and, according to authorities, enabled rum runners to land large cargoes. The bootleggers were further aided by the fact the entire coast marine patrol went out of existence last night.

TEST FLIGHT PLANNED FOR ZEP LOS ANGELES

Lakehurst, N. J., Nov. 12 (U.N.S.).—The Zeppelin ZR-3, the "Los Angeles," may be given its final test flight on Saturday, Lieutenant Joseph C. Arnold, acting commander, said at the naval air station here today. A short trip over New York and Philadelphia is contemplated. The Zeppelin was to be inflated with helium, replacing the hydrogen gas used in the flight across the Atlantic.

DAWES PICKED FOR BIG CHICAGO BUDGET

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Charles G. Dawes, Vice-President-elect, the first director of the National budget, has been suggested for a financial or budget advisor to the Chicago school Board, which has made plans for a $120,000,000 ten-year building program. General Dawes, it is pointed out, would have time before the inauguration in March to help get the school finances on a strong basis.

TROPICAL DISTURBANCE IS HEADING NORTHEAST

Washington, Nov. 12.—The following storm warning was issued today by the Weather Bureau:

"Tropical disturbance is advancing northeastward at moderate rate. Estimate position 400 miles south of Bermuda. It will continue northeast and cause strong winds near and southeast of Bermuda and gales in its path next twenty-four hours."

MOTHER!

Watch Child's Bowels

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless Laxative

Children love the pleasant taste of "California Fig Syrup" and gladly take it even when bilious, feverish, sick, or constipated. No other laxative regulates the tender little bowels so nicely. It sweetens the stomach and starts the liver and bowels without cramping or overacting. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

CODFISH START FOR SOUTHERN WATERS

Professor Bigelow Who Has Tagged 20,000 Tells of Migration

By GRACE DESCHAMPS

The Codfish are traveling south.

Packing their grips and leaving for the waters of the Southern States—via the Offshore Limited.

All the way from Mount Desert Island, Maine, to Cape Cod and Nantucket Shoals, the icing of New England waters is pulling out its freight for balmier seasons.

The illustrious Skipjack of shore dinners and Friday menus, who has spent the Summer loafing in the cool waters of Cape Cod Bay and the Gulf of Maine, has set out for the milder waters of the lower New Jersey, Virginia and Florida seaboard.

The object of the codfish into the realm of seafood-to society is announced at the annual meeting of the National Academy of Sciences at Harvard.

Professor Henry Bigelow of Harvard, leader of various expeditions in oceanography for the United States Bureau of Fisheries, informed the academy that 20,000 New England codfish had been caught, tagged and piloted back in the water again by employes of the bureau of fisheries, and their social habits studied.

Various fishermen who had rubbed their eyes upon hauling up a butterling codfish to find his fin neatly banded with the insignia of the United States government, are assured by Professor Bigelow that the quality of their home brew had nothing to do whatever with the matter.

For the past two years, Professor Bigelow declared, travelers of the Bureau of Fisheries have been pursuing the codfish up and down the coast in connection with their study of tides, sea ills and other cosmic conditions.

"For the first time," says Professor Bigelow, "actual information has been gained by the Bureau of Fisheries about sea foods, tides and seaworth.

"Ten thousand codfish were caught with hook and line off the trawlers, in Nantucket Shoals, around Cape Cod and off Mount Desert Island. Some of them were tagged last year and some this year.

"With the coming of cold weather, the tagged fish were found down off the lower New Jersey and Virginia coastline, traveling southward. All during the Winter they were found down off the Southern States.

"During the first warm months of late Spring and early Summer, however, these tagged fellows migrated back to their old homes and were again found in New England waters.

"This year's experiments have disclosed the same facts about them. With the coming of cold weather they are betaking themselves to a warmer climate, which they will leave when the waters get more comfortable around here."

NEW HIGHWAY SAFETY POSTER

25 CITIES POST NEW WARNING TO MOTORISTS

The increase in automobile fatalities on the highways of the United States, which the average man considers a sure sign of the need of the automobile Safety Council and the Safe Roads Federation to issue a special notice, which is being sent to the police chiefs of the many to make them do nothing more than spend the closing weeks of the year. Twenty-five cities and towns are of nearly political it.

The center, which bears the slogan, "Motorists, what's your hurry, you'll only overtake your own funeral," is based on the fact that speed has been the important factor in nearly every fatal accident during the past month.

The Massachusetts Safety Council reports an increase of 100 accidents in the last two months of 1923 over the same an abnormal situation, with 1924 and 1925 limited. We are included in the same favorable safety conditions that occur as a fair test. Let us do not become fatalistic. Let's industrious and intelligent motorists in mind the fact that in this season of the year the danger-peak of the day is between 5 and 7 p. m. Everybody must be alert during these hours."

MEMORIAL ORGAN AT CITY CLUB IS PLAYED

The great memorial organ in the auditorium of the Boston City Club gave forth its first music in public during the session of dedication which were held following a dinner of members of the organization, Charles H. Cox, president of the club, presided, and gave a short talk on the work done in securing the memorial possible, and the plans which he hoped it would take in the club's life.

Second of a series of advertisements regarding the telephone situation in New England

Why?

The principal reason why we cannot go on furnishing adequate telephone service at present rates lies in the lessened purchasing power of the dollar as reflected in higher prices for materials and labor.

Up to the war period our dollar of income was pretty well adjusted to the dollar of outgo.

Since the war, while selling you telephone service from plant built at pre-war prices, we were able to make ends meet largely through improvements in equipment and operating practices, and partly through increased rates which gave us approximately fifteen per cent additional revenue, per telephone.

But this equipment, built at pre-war prices, has been more and more replaced by new equipment built at present-day prices; furthermore, the number of new telephones connected in the past five years is the largest in any equal period of our existence—an increase of thirty-six per cent for the company as a whole and of forty per cent for Massachusetts.

Telephone rates of five years ago, when the average cost of plant and equipment was $138 per telephone, do not provide an adequate return today when the average cost of plant and equipment is $178 per telephone, and steadily increasing.

An increase in telephone rates is necessary, not only to attract the new money required to meet the demands for expansion, but also to keep up the present service.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic Coughs and Persistent Colds Lead to Serious Lung Trouble. You Can Stop Them Now With Creomulsion, an Emulsified Creosote That Is Pleasant to Take.

Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, Creosote is recognized by the medical profession as the greatest healing agent for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.

CREOMULSION

MARY GARDEN LET 'SUN DO ITS WORST'

She Lost 17 Pounds and Hopes "the Busybodies Sprained Their Eyes"

New York, Nov. 12.—Mary Garden, who has arrived after a Summer vacation abroad, returned weighing seventeen pounds less than she weighed on her departure six months ago. She said she lost the pounds at 112 pounds.

"My friends will be surprised when they see me in Thais with the waist of a wasp," predicted Miss Garden. She will leave before the end of this week for Chicago for the opera season.

Explaining how she banished the seventeen pounds, Miss Garden said she went in her boat about two miles off shore, got out of her bathing suit, stretched herself on the deck and "let the sun do its worst."

"After sunning myself," she said, "for an hour, I dived overboard, swam about twenty minutes and then went ashore."

She added she hoped any busybodies ashore with binoculars sprained their eyes.

The ashore brought twenty trunks filled with Paris gowns.

Penrose Hemenquapand of Italy, formerly Margaret Preston Draper of Hopedale, Mass., also arrived on the Olympic.

MOORFIELD STOREY IN DYE PATENT SUIT PLEA

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—Moorfield Storey of Boston today summed up for the defence in the government's suit against the Chemical Foundation, Inc., in which it is sought to recover 5,000 seized German dye patents sold to the foundation by the alien property custodian. The suit was dismissed by the Federal District Court in Delaware and brought up to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

SCHOLARS STRIKE FOR ARMISTICE HOLIDAY

Johnson City, Tenn., Nov. 12.—About 400 students of the Johnson City High School walked out on strike," enforcing an unscheduled holiday for Armistice Day.

Advised by the superintendent that no plans had been made for a holiday, it was stated, the students took matters into their own hands and left the building.

Smart Folk Sponsoring Foreign Poster Sale to Aid Ellis Memorial

By BETTY ALDEN

AMONG THE MORE unusual affairs being staged for charity is the exhibition of foreign posters set for next Monday afternoon at No. 22 Berkeley street.

That display is made possible through the interest of Miss Isabelle I. Whitney of Milton, who collected the posters during her recent travels abroad.

They are pictures of rarely beautiful scenes in France and Italy, done by some of the leading artists of both countries. I understand that those desiring to, may purchase some of these picturesque views for themselves.

The hours of the exhibition are from two until seven, and during the afternoon tea will be served to visitors with Mrs. Robert H. Stevenson, Jr., and Mrs. Donald MacKay Frost to ask you "how many lumps please?"

Naturally a host of fair young debutantes will be on hand to assist Mesdames Stevenson and Frost, the group to include among others Miss Elizabeth Tayler, Miss Caroline Towle and Miss Evelyn Windeler.

The proceeds derived from this exhibition will go to the Ellis Memorial House and tickets for it may be obtained either at Herrick's or the Ellis Memorial.

LOUISE JAMES

The fair daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. James was one of the debutantes serving as manikins at the fashion show Monday at Ellot Hall, Jamaica Plain. Proceeds from the affair will help secure the preservation of the Loring Greenough mansion.

AMONG THE BOSTONIANS who will greet old Kriss Kringle in a more sunny clime is Mrs. Charles P. Greenough, 2nd.

Mrs. Greenough will leave sometime during the early part of December for Santa Barbara where her two little boys are at school. Also passing the colder months in this popular winter stamping ground is Mrs. Greenough's mother, Mrs. Hamilton Perkins.

Mrs. Greenough, who is always a leading figure at the Ellis senior supper dances, will probably not remain more than a few weeks in California.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE HIGGINSON—whose two popular daughters, Lee and Theresa, are off on their annual hunting trip to Virginia—were among the prominent Berkeleyites attending the dinner party given in Lenox by Mr. and Mrs. Girard Foster.

The affair was held at the "Bellefontaine," the Foster residence, and was in observance of Mr. Posters' birthday. There was a regular birthday cake, illuminated with candles, and golden chrysanthemums decorated the tables.

Others of the company besides the Higginsons were Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Morris, the Charles Astor Bristeds, Miss Rose Wilson Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pease and Mrs. W. Roscoe Bonsal.

PRINCESS BERTHA CANTACUZENE, who is spending the Winter in Washington, gave a luncheon there the other day.

Owing to the death of Mrs. Moses Williams, the tea which Mrs. Charles A. Williams had planned to give yesterday for her debutante granddaughter, Miss Althea Payson, has been cancelled.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Richards, of the North Shore's Summer colony, have returned to their home in Tuxedo Park after a six weeks' fishing trip in Wisconsin.

Miss Lavinia H. Newell and Robert Stowe Bradley were joined the Boston colony at Hot Springs.

Miss Allan Mellon, who spent some time in New York upon returning from Europe recently, is back in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kerrigan (Esther Slater Welles) have ended their honeymoon at Hot Springs and returned to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Q. Brown, the latter formerly Miss Ida Eldredge of Boston, were present at the dinner given last night in New York at the Hotel Astor for Signor Gelasio Caetani, the Italian ambassador in Washington, and Henry P. Fletcher, the United States envoy to Italy.

BAR M'DONALD'S NAME AT TRIAL OF DE KAY

London, Nov. 12.—The name of former Premier MacDonald today was again brought into the court room during the Wesley De Kay, whose return to Providence, R. I., is sought in connection with charges of participating in a bank fraud. Testifying in his own defense, De Kay, who has alleged political motives were back of his trouble, said he had had nothing to do with Bell division and had even submitted to the former Premier a plan for combatting it. The magistrate stopped the witness by stating: "We're not here Mr. MacDonald's name out of this."

53,172,000 BUSHELS OF NEW ENGLAND POTATOES

On an average yield per acre of 240 bushels, the New England potato crop now promises 53,172,000 bushels according to a bulletin issued today by the New England crop reporting service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The crop of last year was 47,162,000 and the average from 1919 to 1923 was 51,400,000. Maine, with an estimated crop of 38,880,000 bushels this year, has 72 per cent. of the New England total.

MA FERGUSON WINNER BY 107,436 PLURALITY

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 12.—The plurality of Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, Democrat, over Dr. George C. Butte, Republican, for Governor on a week ago Tuesday's election was 107,436 votes on the basis of complete returns from 221 of the 253 counties in Texas tabulated by the Texas Election Bureau. The figures are: Butte, 288,937; Mrs. Ferguson, 396,-373.

BUYING DELUGE CREATES NEW PEAK PRICES

New York, Nov. 12.—Speculation in stocks continued to run riot in today's market, another deluge of buying orders sending more than two dozen issues to new peak prices for the year in the first half hour, with total sales in excess of 3,000,000 shares in that period.

Early gains ranged from fractions to 4 points, and, except in a few cases, were well maintained in the first hour's trading despite an enormous amount of profit-taking.

Buying was stimulated by a reduction in the renewal rate for call money from 2½ to 2 per cent.

The list of new highs include Missouri Pacific common, Wabash preferred A, "Katy" preferred, General Asphalt, Pure Oil, American Smelting, Continental Can, Corn Products, Pullman and Eastman Kodak.

Commodity markets were reactionary, Cotton steady, foreign exchanges lower.

REPORT MRS. HARDING IS SOMEWHAT STRONGER

Marion, O., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding, critically ill at the home of Dr. Carl W. Sawyer, was somewhat stronger today, having slept five hours last night, according to a bulletin given out by Dr. Sawyer. "Complications and other conditions are unchanged," Dr. Sawyer said.

STEVENSON MANUSCRIPT SOLD FOR $10,000

New York, Nov. 12.—The original manuscript of "Kidnaped," by Robert Louis Stevenson, brought a price of $10,000 at an auction sale of the William Harris Arnold collection. It is believed to be the highest price ever paid for a Stevenson manuscript. Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach outbid Miss Belle Da Acosta Greene, librarian of the J. Pierpont Morgan Library, in acquiring it.

The single page manuscript of Stevenson's Requiem brought $7,500 while his note book for his "Travels with a Donkey" brought $2,000.

DONOVAN LEADS PRIMARY VOTE IN LOWELL

Braden Is Also Nominated for Mayoralty Election; Corbett May Ask Recount

Lowell, Nov. 12.—Final returns in the local primaries, among the most spirited and bitter in the history of the city, were received today and showed Mayor John J. Donovan and Election Commissioner Thomas H. Braden as the successful candidates for mayoralty nominees.

They will contest for the office at the city elections on December 2.

The fight for second place between Commissioner Braden and Representative Thomas J. Corbett was won by Braden by 907 votes. Corbett's campaign committee meets today to decide on whether or not a petition for a recount will be filed.

For council-at-large the six present incumbents were nominated together with six others.

The official vote for mayor was: Donovan, 6,528; Braden, 6,111; Corbett, 6,007; Brown, 3,732; Garrity, 2,666; Bruin, 2,425; Scott, 1,867; Warnock, 124; McCarthy, 63.

The nominees for council-at-large were Gallagher, Hennessey, Daly, Lambert, Cosgrove, McFadden, Lord, Hubin, Thomas, Preston, Kinghorn and Hooley.

For the school committee, two years, Cameron, Flannagan; three years, Delaney, Riley, Lambert and Giroux.

CHORUS GIRL FRIENDS SURPRISE MR. DAWES

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Charles G. Dawes, Vice-President-elect, made his first public address since his election a week ago.

It was to the chorus of the Chicago Civic Opera Company. Sauntering out of the Auditorium Theatre box office, the Vice-President-elect encountered the dismissal of the rehearsal of Samson and Delilah. The chorus spied him and in a moment had surrounded him, cheering and singing. Mr. Dawes said:

"Ladies one and gentlemen, I really did not think I had so many friends in grand opera—especially in the chorus."

BISHOP BRICKLEY OF SINGAPORE STRICKEN

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—The Rev. Dr. George H. Bickley, Methodist Bishop of Singapore, is seriously ill in a local hospital, the result of an attack of tropical fever in Africa, two years ago. He is suffering from a nervous breakdown and organic heart trouble, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery. He is about fifty-five years old.

WOMAN FAILS TO FIGHT SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Bessie Skolnick Is Not Anxious to Have Police Testify Against Her

Salem, Nov. 12.—The probability of sensational disclosures by Lynn police officers, on hand as witnesses in Probate Court today, led Mrs. Bessie Skolnick to withdraw her contest in the divorce proceedings brought by her husband, Joseph Skolnick, former wealthy Lynn grocer.

In consequence Judge Alden P. White granted a divorce to Skolnick and also awarded him custody of the two children.

Trouble between the Skolnicks started a year and a half ago, when Mrs. Skolnick eloped with George Smith, chauffeur for her father, Robert Wolkenstein. On their return to Lynn the couple were arrested on a statutory complaint.

Skolnick named Smith in his complaint and in court today had four Lynn policemen as witnesses, but they were not called on to testify.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

BARS DR. WILEY TESTIMONY ON 11 P. C. WINE

Judge in Hill's Trial Rules Out Opinion That Beverage Is Intoxicating

Baltimore, Nov. 12.—Charging the jury in the trial of Representative John Philip Hill, in the United States District Court, for violation of the Volstead act, Judge Morris A. Soper today directed the jurymen to ignore the definitions of intoxication as expounded by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure food expert, and Dr. Howard A. Kelly of Baltimore.

These witnesses had testified that cider with 2.70 per cent. alcohol and wine with 11.64 per cent. alcohol are intoxicating.

The Judge also told the jury to find Colonel Hill not guilty on the fifth and sixth counts of the indictment, which charge him with maintaining a common nuisance at his home.

When Judge Soper had completed his charge District Attorney Woodcock asked him to instruct the jury that the burden of proof rested on Colonel Hill to prove that his fruit juices were not intoxicating in fact, and that it was not incumbent upon the government to prove that they were intoxicating.

This Woodcock argued, is provided for in Section 33 of the National Prohibition Act.

Judge Soper, however, declined to take Mr. Woodcock's construction of the law and declined to so charge the jury.

Judge Soper's charge preceded the arguments in the case, which were opened by Arthur W. Machen for the defence.

Mr. Machen told the jury it was not John Philip Hill who was on trial, "but the last vestige of American liberty." Woodcock objected and Judge Soper told Machen he could not make an anti-prohibition speech in court.

ARREST NEIGHBOR IN FLORIDA FLOGGING

Miami, Fla., Nov. 12.—Louis Martin is under arrest on a charge of conspiracy as a result of information obtained from Mrs. Hugo Hubsch, also under arrest, regarding flogging of her husband by masked men. Martin has been proprietor of a store adjoining the Hubsch drugstore at Coconut Grove. Mrs. Hubsch, who is reported to have confessed she instigated the flogging because her husband had offended her, was in so serious a mental condition that she was taken to a hospital.

COMMEMORATE FIRST CONTROLLED FLIGHT

Paris, Nov. 12.—A memorial stone commemorating the first officially controlled airplane flight in France was inaugurated today by the Under-Secretary of Aviation, M. Laurent-Eynac, at Bagatelle, in the Bois de Boulogna, where M. Santos-Dumont covered 220 meters in 21 1-6 seconds on November 12, 1906. M. Santos-Dumont received from the Belgian Aviator Coppens the decoration of grand officer of the Order of Leopold II.

ITALIAN OPPOSITION BOYCOTTS PARLIAMENT

Rome, Nov. 12 (I.N.S.).—Every member of the opposition—105 in number—lived up to the announced determination to boycott Parliament and remained absent when the Chamber of Deputies reconvened this afternoon.

Deputy Giolitti, liberal leader, took no part in today's proceedings, being absent to attend exercises honoring the memory of former Deputy Matteotti, member of the Chamber slain by assassins.

FEDERAL OFFICERS SEE THE "END OF RUM ROW"

Washington, Nov. 12.—The "end of rum row" is predicted in a treasury statement published today embodying a review of coast guard operations in October. When all the boats and men provided for by Congress become available, it is said, the service expects to be able to stop the leaks at all of the "worst localities."

The report remarks that "it is surprising to note the number of Norwegian vessels engaged in the liquor traffic."

HUNT FOR DRIVER OF DEATH AUTO TRUCK

New York, Nov. 12.—Police started a city-wide search today for a driver who sped away after his truck had run down and killed David Rubold in Brooklyn and probably fatally injured his wife. The body of Rubold and his injured wife lay in the street until discovered by a passerby. At about the same time an unidentified woman died in a Manhattan hospital of injuries suffered when run down by a taxicab in Central Park West.

PUTNAM BANK TO BE ASKED FOR STATE FUND

Hartford, Ct., Nov. 12.—The State of Connecticut will make demand this week upon Receiver Coffin of the closed First National Bank of Putnam for the full amount of $126,000 shown by State records to have been deposited there by G. Harold Gilpatric, defaulting cashier of the bank, in his capacity as State treasurer.

BULLETS BLOCK RUM BOAT IN SEA FIGHT

Several Hundred Cases Liquor Taken From Speedy Motor Yacht Herreshoff

Providence, Nov. 12.—In a running fight in Narragansett Bay early today the Coast Guard rum chaser CG-2264 captured the 70-foot motored yacht Herreshoff, said to hail from Perth Amboy, N. J., and seized several hundred cases of whiskey and champagne.

The rum runner attempted four times to ram the government boat and when ordered to heave-to answered with pistol fire. The government men then unlimbered high powered rifles and put 10 or 15 bullets through the quarter inch steel cover of the Herreshoff's cabin.

The yacht was then beached by the crew, who swam ashore.

New London, Nov. 12.—The motor yacht Acoma of New York, with a crew of three, seized last night, brought here today in tow of the Coast Guard Cutter Seminole. The vessel was held for proceeding on a foreign voyage without obtaining clearance and delivering manifest.

NEW PLANET IS MOST ECCENTRIC OF ALL

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 12.—Primary calculations just completed under the direction of Professor A. O. Leuschner of the astronomical department of the University of California reveal that the fast moving object discovered October 23 by Professor Baade at Bergedorf, Germany, is a minor planet moving in a highly eccentric ellipse close to the earth and near its perihelion, said an announcement by Professor Leuschner today. There is no other planet known which has both such high inclination and eccentricity. At its closest approach to the earth about a month before discovery the planet's distance was about 20,000,000 miles.

So hoarse he spoke in whispers, now shouts REM's praises

The driver's seat of a truck is far from a comfortable or healthy place in raw and changeable weather. Last year Mr. N. D. Bowden, driver for I. W. Scott Co., Farm Supplies, Pittsburgh, got a cough that left him so hoarse he could hardly talk above a whisper.

Then he decided to try REM and it relieved not only his cough but those of his two boys. Here's the way he praises REM now:

"I certainly had a whopping cold and cough last winter. I was so hoarse I couldn't hardly talk above a whisper. The cough was awful tight and though I'd cough and cough I couldn't get rid of the phlegm. No matter what I tried, nothing seemed to help any.

"I kept seeing REM so highly recommended in the papers and my brother-in-law told me about it too, so I decided to try it. The first few doses relieved me wonderfully, it loosened the phlegm and the soreness got better too. After a while my cold and cough disappeared.

"My two boys also have taken REM and it was just as good for them as it was for me."

The surprising popularity of REM for coughs is due very largely to grateful users who have passed the good word along.

REM contains, among other things, a special ingredient (too expensive for old-style, slower-acting cough syrups) that makes it cling to your throat as you swallow. Spreading over the sore, inflamed membranes in a soothing, healing film, it quickly quiets the cough.

REM is pleasant to take. And it contains no Opiates.

Your druggist has REM—ask him for it. You can have your money back if it doesn't help you. You're the Judge and Jury.

How Girls Can Dress on $150 a Year Related by Expert

Price Table for Clothes

Says Not More Than Fifth of Income Should Be Spent on Clothes

Don't spend more than one-fifth of your income on clothes, girls!

It takes only that percentage to make you the fashion-plate you want to be.

And don't be discouraged if $150 a year is your limit. You can look like a queen on $3 per just the same. Boston clothing experts have worked out a clothing budget for just such girls as you and they say that is all you have to spend to make them turn around and look back at you. In other words, to clip the spectators with your style.

They devised a wardrobe containing all the novelties of the time which are economical and make for smartness, simple and cheap enough!

Most girls buy and buy and yet have nothing to show for their money. They are unfortunate who don't know how to buy wisely and judiciously, according to personality demands, but are caught in the tremendous swirl of Dame Fortune who leads them astray by her fleeting moments of style rather than by good taste. Don't be one of these victims if you want to make both ends meet.

It is looking the part that counts these days and if you are in the $15-a-week class there is no reason why you can't live comfortably on it, especially if you are living at home. Others have done it. So can you!

Miss Harriet Ainsworth, director of Clothing Bureau of Information at a local store, says so. She ought to know for she has advised countless numbers of women on what amount to dress and how.

If you aspire to the face and figure of Venus and the draped and clothed body of Irene Castle, lend an undivided ear to the following figures. Study them carefully and adapt them to your needs. Plan to spend your allowance on clothes accordingly and in the long run you'll make a smarter appearance.

No clothing budget can be standardized. The following amounts constitute a well-planned wardrobe on

"In explanation of this three-year unit budget, which takes purchases over a period of three years, it is understood that one does not spend $440 the first year, but divides it over the three-year period," Miss Ainsworth continues. "It is assumed that the girl already has on hand the garments left from the second and third years of the previous three year unit when she buys her first year clothes."

CORRUPTION CHARGE IN SPRINGFIELD CAUCUS

Springfield, Nov. 12.—Sensational charges of alleged corruption are threatened by Attorney A. Paul Connor, Springfield lawyer and engineer, in an effort to upset the result of the caucus for Mayor.

Connor, who was a candidate for designation at the polls, was defeated, Fordis Parker, chairman of the board of public works, and Josiah Dearborn, city solicitor, both running far ahead of Mr. Connor.

"Word has come to me that both Dearborn and Parker spent great sums in excess of the amounts provided by law," said the attorney.

POLICE SAY FARMER SLAYER IS INSANE

Providence, R. I., Nov. 12.—Archie Thornton, fifty-five-year-old farmer who murdered his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Thornton, sixty-three years old, with a butcher knife, is being examined today by alienists, as the police are convinced the man is insane.

The slaying occurred in Thornton's home on Sandy lane, near Hoxie, R. I., and after killing Mrs. Thornton, the farmer endeavored to attack her companion, Miss Anna Kouwalski of New Hedford, who ran screaming from the house.

BARUCH PROPOSES COURT OF COMMERCE

New York, Nov. 12.—A court of commerce before which business men could appeal in times of overproduction and low prices in order to arrange for the mutual fixing of prices and the cutting down of overproduction was proposed in a statement by Bernard Baruch, formerly of the war industries board, following a closed meeting of 150 former members of the board today.

WOMAN PLEADS GUILTY TO BAD CHECK CHARGE

Mrs. Katherine Brown of Newton, self-styled magazine writer, charged with the larceny of $200 from the Newton Savings Bank on September 5, by passing a worthless check, pleaded guilty in the Middlesex Superior Criminal Court, East Cambridge, and was sentenced to 18 months in the House of Correction by Judge Lawton.

PLAN TO BETTER NEW HAMPSHIRE FORESTS

Concord, N. H., Nov. 12.—The executive committee of the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests met here and outlined a legislative program, as well as one of general work, for the coming year.

Projects include reforestation of 2,000,000 acres of idle land, making State forests revenue producing tracts and increasing fire protection.

COAST GUARDSMEN REACH NEW LONDON

New London, Ct., Nov. 12.—The last of the Coast Guardsmen formerly stationed at Newport, arrived here aboard the U. S. S. Red Wing, flagship of the Coast Guard dry fleet at this base in command of Captain J. J. Hudson. Approximately 175 sailors to be held as a reserve of men to be drawn upon for sea service are now at the Academy and the Coast Guard station at Newport has been abandoned.

DENTIST KICKED HER, WIFE TESTIFIES

Dr. Fitzpatrick Admitted Punching, Mother-In-Law Declares

Dr. Albert G. Fitzpatrick, Boylston street dentist, in years old, admitted that he punched his 24-year-old wife at intervals, when the wife dictated to him, according to the dentist's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary O'Donnell of Putnam avenue, Cambridgeville.

The mother-in-law is one of the witnesses in the wife's suit for separate maintenance, now in progress in East Cambridge probate court.

The wife, Mrs. Florence A. Fitzpatrick, who has custody of the two children, Leo, 3 years old, and Paul, 2 years old, seeks support of $40 a week. On the witness stand she testified the husband now says her $20 a week furnishes her a home, pays the taxes, light and coal bills and other incidentals.

The Fitzpatricks were married seven years ago, after Mrs. Fitzpatrick was the dentist's office assistant for six years.

Hitting her with an umbrella, kicking her the length of the hall, throwing spittoons at her, buying her a fur coat of $500 and paying a $200 doctor bill were some of the dentist's alleged acts, the wife told of when she took the witness stand.

Boston Company Quits Search for Platinum Meteor in Arizona

Flagstaff, Ariz., Nov. 12.—The U. S. Smelting and Refining Company of Boston has discontinued operations to locate a meteor in Meteor mountain, east of Flagstaff, and the plant machinery is being dismantled to be moved to the company's site of operations at Oatman. It was learned here today.

The company has been drilling in Meteor mountain for two years to locate a meteor which is supposed to have fallen and buried itself to a great depth. Fragments about the crater contained considerable platinum.

The big party she missed

FOR months she had been looking forward to this affair—probably the most gala event of the winter season.

And more than that—the man who was to take her was looked upon as the one real "catch" in her set.

A week before the big night she felt a dry, rasping hitch in her throat. She neglected it and kept right on going.

A few days later her throat was so inflamed she could hardly swallow food. And then a rapidly rising temperature.

The doctor ordered her to bed—and kept her there three days. On the evening she wanted most to feel fit, she was confined to the house like a little old lady—and the others were dancing.

Don't let sore throat throw you out of step with winter pleasures.

Guard against this trouble by taking the simple precaution of using Listerine, the safe antiseptic, as a preventive for throat irritations and the more serious ills that so often follow.

Have Listerine handy always in your bathroom. It is the ideal, safe antiseptic. Its dozens of different uses are fully described in the circular that comes around each bottle.—Lambert Pharmacal Company, Saint Louis, U. S. A.

LISTERINE —the safe antiseptic

LISTERINE Throat Tablets, containing the antiseptic oils of Listerine, are now available . . . While we frankly admit that no tablet or candy lozenge can correct halitosis, the Listerine antiseptic oils in these tablets are very valuable as a relief for throat irritations—25 cents.

ANNIVERSARY OF DODGE IS CELEBRATED

Ten years ago this week the first Dodge Brothers automobile was driven through the streets of Boston by C. S. Henshaw. What changes have been wrought in ten years.

Now Mr. Henshaw is one the largest distributors of Dodge Brothers cars and trucks in America. Special displays will be given all next week at the large Henshaw building on Commonwealth avenue.

Mr. Henshaw was host yesterday at a most enjoyable luncheon and afternoon of golf for automobile representatives of the Boston newspapers.

Free Booklet for Care of Trucks

General Motors Truck Company has published for free distribution a pocket-size booklet containing seven articles on the "Care and Operation of Motor Trucks," by F. A. Whitten, chief engineer of the General Motors Truck Company.

The references and suggestions made are general and can be applied to all makes of trucks and should be read by all truck drivers. Copies may be had from Noyes-G. M. C. Company, No. 888 Commonwealth avenue, Boston.

Even With Frame Resting on Axles and Springs Cut, Buick Performs Well

To show that no serious results would attend an accident of even sufficient severity to break one or more of the springs, Buick ran this car, with rear springs unattached and front springs one-half severed, about the streets of Boston this week.

What looked like an automobile that had slipped out of the factory to play "hookey" before it was completed was seen rolling around Boston streets this week. It was a stripped chassis with only a driver's seat. The frame rested, unsprung, on the axles and at each side the unattached rear springs waved up and down. The front springs showed several cuts where one-half of each spring had been cut off and removed.

From a safety standpoint the demonstration of the Noyes-Buick Sales Company proved that, with a car built on the principles of the exhibit, no serious results would attend an accident of even sufficient severity to break one or more springs. It showed that the axles were made sufficiently sturdy to carry the car without springs; that the torque tube drive permitted the springs to perform one function only and prevented disaster should a spring or shackle be smashed; also that the cutting of a front spring had no bad effect on the easy steering qualities of the car.

The rear springs of the car had been unfastened from the axle. They were held up above the frame, their free ends suspended in the air. The front springs, as has been explained, each had a half cut away.

One of the principal mechanical features that made this demonstration possible is the torque tube, or third member drive. This consists of having the drive shaft housing attached to the rear axle housing and transmission. This method not only adds to the safety of the passengers in case of an accident, but also improves the riding qualities of the car by relieving the springs of doing the double duty of cushioning road shocks and transmitting the driving power from the engine to the rear wheels.

Chevrolet Opens Service Schools

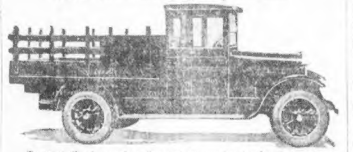
One of the most noticeable tendencies during the last year and a half in the automobile industry has been the stress placed by all motor car companies on "dealers' service" and the efforts many of the companies are making to help their dealers in their service work in every possible way.

Flat rate prices, uniform, modern tool and general equipment, constitute some of the big movements that have been emphasized lately to make service more efficient and reliable for the general public.

Along the lines of service education, the Chevrolet Motor Company has a system of service schools where the proper use of tools and equipment is taught in addition to general shop management, shop operation and flat rate service.

The Chevrolet Motor Company believes that proper training and instruction on car upkeep and repair will make the dealer and service organization more efficient in the servicing and repair of Chevrolet cars. More efficient work at flat rate prices means a lower upkeep cost for Chevrolet owners which still further backs up the company's slogan: "For Economical Transportation."

Half of Motor Trucking in Country Done With One-Ton Capacity Trucks



To meet the increasing demand for one-ton trucks that are comfortable and fine appearing, as well as durable, Dodge Brothers have brought out this new model, now on exhibition here.

Government statistics recently issued show that considerably more than one-half of the motor trucking in the United States is carried on by small units of approximately one ton capacity, this size having been found best adapted to the majority of businesses. It is, therefore, of much interest to the commercial world to know that one of the largest manufacturers of commercial vehicles has brought out a new type of one-ton truck which is distinguished not alone by staunchness and durability, but by fine appearance and comfort, qualities which heretofore have not received major attention from the builders of trucks.

The first of these new vehicles, which are being manufactured by Graham Brothers' division of Dodge Brothers, to arrive in Boston, is being shown at the Commonwealth avenue salesrooms of the Henshaw Motor Company. Graham Brothers employ the Dodge Brothers power plant in their vehicles and are handled exclusively by the Dodge Brothers selling and service organizations throughout the country. The manufacturers are among the leaders in the United States in the production of commercial vehicles, having risen in three years from seventieth to eighth position among truck producers.

The chassis model is substantial and the lines are such as to make it an economical as well as a utility connection with any business. The springs are of high quality steel, almost semi-elliptic and yet markedly resilient. The vehicle is easy to handle in down-town traffic and has exceptionally comfortable seat cushions and upholstery. In this the makers recognize the fact that keeping the driver comfortable and contented is a most necessary element in successful truck operation. It contributes toward good care of the vehicle and courtesy toward customers.

The manufacturers have devoted a vast amount of study to the body requirements of varied businesses and have manufactured thirty-seven standard bodies in great quantities, by buying a Graham Brothers Truck," says C. S. Henshaw, "the business man is able to secure complete equipment without the delay, inconvenience and extra cost of buying a body separately. The manufacture of the Graham Brothers chassis and bodies in immense quantities explains the surprisingly low price of this new one-ton unit."

Badly In Debt

Helping Hand Editor:

Only inside the dominion my writing secret. I am badly in debt and can see no way out. I have children and another coming, for whom there is nothing ready. I cannot tell my husband, as he would have another spell and then it would be all over. I am a hard worker and would do anything to get the new baby clothes for the new baby, so as to keep my husband from knowing. If some one would help me out I would be very grateful. Will I ever get out of debt? Will I ever have a happy home? Will I ever be able to help my husband? Will I ever have any peace of mind? I would help us out if I could.

It was found by long experimentation that certain mental operations called "reactions" could be taken as guides to determine the stage of mental development in a given case. The stage of development thus established is called the mental age, which may be very different from the chronological age.

The proper use of tests is one of the most valuable developments of modern education. By this means it is possible to have some children from the course of trying to keep on with those who are mentally far inferior, while the sensible child is spared the injustice of being kept in a class or grade too frequently point the way to success in life—one of the objects of these articles.

AMUNDSEN'S SHIP SAFE; ABANDONS HIS TRIP

Copenhagen, Nov. 12 (I.N.S.)—Lieut. Amundsen's Arctic ship, the Maud, is free from the ice and safe, four miles north of Spitzbergen, according to radio messages from Amundsen received today. The Maud escaped from the ice August 7 with no further damage than a slight leak. Amundsen reported all well with his crew. The assistance has given up his plan to drift across the Arctic Ocean.

EFFICIENCY TO COME BEFORE LOOKS

When a holder sacrifices the electrical efficiency of a set to appearance he can expect poor results regardless of the type of set used. It must be laid on along accepted lines.

Perhaps the most common fault is in using high and low potential conductors in close proximity, and also by running high potential leads closely paralleling or crossing the leads of other installations, which they can be kept away from them.

All leads should be kept from touching any material, except when it can be avoided, because the result works best when the leads are free in the air.

No insulation is needed when the leads only be kept rigid and away from each other. For example, the aerial lead should be kept away from filament and ground wires, where it connects to the primary. Also, all leads from the antenna and ground to the radio should be removed as far as possible from other parts of the circuit.

Inductance coils must be kept away from the variable condensers.

FEWER EMPLOYES IN INTERIOR DEPARTMENT

Washington, Nov. 12.—A reduction from 19,172 to 17,704 in the personnel of the Interior Department during the past year was announced today by Secretary Work.

COOLIDGE SOON TO CALL ARMS CONFERENCE

Washington, Nov. 12 (I.N.S.)—President Coolidge is only awaiting a favorable opportunity to take the initiative in calling another world arms conference—if, indeed, "feeling" in that direction have not already been put out by this government.

The primary purpose of all such conferences would be to accomplish what the Washington conference left undone, that is the production of overall naval tonnage, both in size and number of submarines, and the size and equipment of land forces and especially international navies.

Hence the trend in London, indicating that the British government favors the time is ripe, were viewed in Washington today as significant.

The British and American governments, upon which must fall the major work in persuading another world parley, are now in power, but for some years ahead. No governmental overturns in either country stand in the way of such a move.

The French always have been the stumbling block in the pathway of a new conference, but now with the Herriot plan in operation, with the end of the Ruhr and French finances somewhat more stabilized by the new Morgan loan, whether the French will in fact, as the leading nations half way, remain to be seen.

The two important questions to be settled in the summoning of another conference are the attitude to be taken toward Russia and whether the conference should be held in America or in Europe. Britain favors the second conference being held abroad, but the American Government does not look with much favor on this proposal.

SOLDIERS MOBILIZED BY CALL ON RADIO

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Radio was used successfully to mobilize 148 men of the 122nd Infantry in less than half an hour. Seven minutes after the call the first men responded. Non-commissioned officers, hearing the call over loud speakers, in cars, commandeered automobiles and rushed to the armory, picking up men on the way.

Look on the Windshield for Certificate
Every used car advertised on this page has undergone a rigid inspection. The Boston American employs expert mechanics to make these tests.
Only an "INSPECTED" car can receive the blue certificate at inspection. It is your protection and safeguard.
If you do not see the blue Certificate on the windshield of the car you want to buy, ask the dealer to have an inspection made, by telephoning the Boston American, Liberty 4000. No charge nor obligation.
Cars which pass our inspection are, of course, the good cars. Thus the list below contains the pick of the USED CAR market in Boston. All types of cars, at all prices, and all inspected. The Boston American will help you select a Used Car Bargain at just the price you can afford to pay.

2ND LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

Through unflagging industry in the making of children's playthings the Minute Men of the town of Winchendon have increased the population by 1,100 per cent and made a world name

The handicap, "Made in Germany," had no terrors for the workers in this little New England town, and now they vie with Nuremburg in the sale of their toys.

Bay State Toy Town Carved From Obscurity by Alert Yankee Minute Man's Jackknife

SEVENTY miles northwest of Boston is a town whittled out of obscurity by one alert Yankee and one jackknife.

When the annals of New England's Minute Men are compiled, the name of Morton E. Converse will stand high on the list.

High also will be scrolled the names of the hundreds of his followers, Minute Men all!

Through unflagging industry they have increased their town's population by 1,100 per cent. and spread its fame throughout the nation and the world.

Hats off to Winchendon, better known as "Toy Town!"

The accomplishment of this energetic community, nestling in the shadow of Mt. Monadnock's peak, can be duplicated by other communities.

There is no secret formula to Toy Town's success and prosperity. Its story is one of opportunity seized and the spirit of the Minute Man exercised.

It is a story of even a second opportunity recognized and accepted by an energetic people, headed by a far-seeing leader.

Unmistakable proof that opportunity is a frequent caller in those places where it is well received!

A few years ago Toy Town, after a struggle of almost four decades out of its lethargy, reached a point where it was styled "the Nuremburg of America."

In the toy trade this is a proud title!

But in Winchendon it called only for happy grins. The Winchendonians kept their counsel and industriously sawed wood—literally as well as figuratively.

Today, so rapidly has the town forged ahead, that instead of Winchendon bearing the title, "the Nuremburg of America," Nuremburg is in a fair way toward being entitled, "the Winchendon of Germany."

This is the ultimate aim of the neat little community, striving mightily on its eminence, 1,100 feet above sea level, for world leadership.

By all indications its aim will be realized. If industry and ambition still count, Toy Town, within a few years, will be at the fore.

Winchendon's story reads like a page from a fairy book. But it is a story of Winchendon's own writing, with hammer and saw and nails for implements and honest perspiration for ink.

Forty-six years ago a handful of people—500 souls—dwelt in Winchendon.

It was not Toy Town then. The only toys in the community were those purchased with hard-earned money at Christmas time, for the children.

Counterparts of thousands of their fellows throughout the land, Winchendon's citizens dwelt a dull, emotionless existence.

Few knew the town's location. Except in election returns, its name seldom graced the public prints.

Lazily and languidly it lived out its mediocre years. Only morning, noon and night served to mar the unbroken monotony of its days.

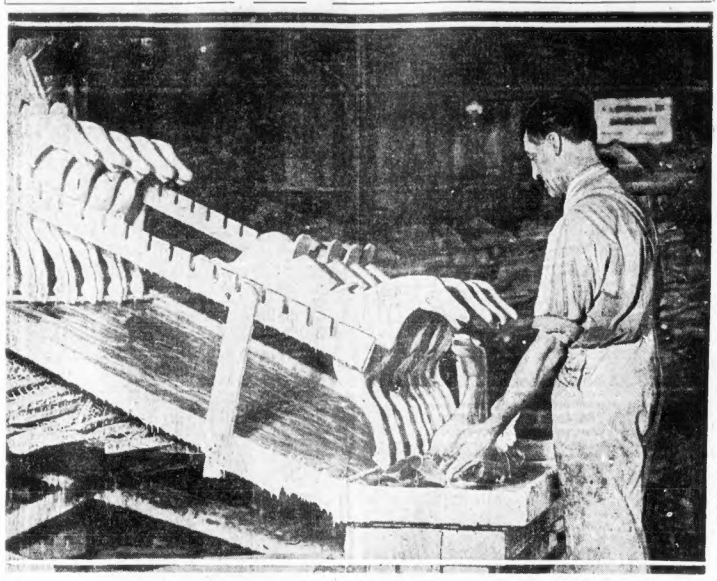
Hidden beneath the surface, however, was an explosive energy that awaited only a spark to touch it off.

One of Winchendon's 500 inhabitants was Morton E. Converse, New Hampshire boy, Civil War veteran and small town manufacturer of wooden ware.

Paper collars had just come into vogue and Mr. Converse manufactured small wooden boxes in which to pack and ship them.

In an idle moment one day he whittled with his jackknife, Yankee fashion.

LONE WHITTLER STARTED THIS



Scene in a section of a toy factory in Winchendon where rocking-horses are being turned out by the hundreds. This wide-spread and prosperous industry had its inception in the use of a knife and a piece of wood by Morton E. Converse, handled in idle moments. Then the vision of American-made toys came to him, and with twenty-five friends as pioneer Minute Men he had laid plans which were to bring his town from a population of 500 to one of 6,000, more than 1000 today working in the three big factories. The "Nuremburg of America" now bids fair to be known as the "Winchendon of Germany."

The result was a tiny table, which he placed in one of the boxes.

Then—just for the fun of it—he whittled out a tiny wooden bowl and placed in on the table.

From such tiny acorns do great oaks grow!

The spirit of the Minute Man was kindled with the act and a vision of American made toys in use throughout the world unreeled before him.

Before nightfall, Mr. Converse had laid plans for manufacturing toys, with a nucleus of twenty-five friends as pioneer workers.

Yankee ingenuity and one Yankee jackknife had whittled out a new American industry.

Heart and soul the natives threw themselves into the new work. Even though sales came, American toys were new in the American market, of course, and the sledding was rough.

Under such conditions a Minute Man plugs harder!

Nuremburg, with its traditions and its generation after generation of artisans born into the toy atmosphere and trained in that line from babyhood, had led the field for as many years as one could remember.

The handicap of the "Made in Germany" trade mark, exploited throughout the world, was a tremendous obstacle to overcome.

Chiefly was it difficult to outsell Nuremburg products, because the German trade mark was reputed to be a guarantee that the goods on which it appeared were the real thing.

Again the spirit of the Minute Man rose to the surface in Toy Town.

"We will make better toys," said Winchendon.

In the next breath came the amendment, "We will make the best toys."

On this basis the fight for supremacy cannot be lost, even though victory may be delayed.

Reluctance of American buyers proved the big obstacle to the Toy Town manufacturers.

The buyers were reluctant to admit that American toys could be even as good as the German product, let alone better.

Millions of dollars worth of Nuremburg toys continued to be imported into the United States for American children to play with.

Then came the World War and Winchendon, for the second time, seized upon its big opportunity.

The black clouds rolling across Europe's horizon in 1914 were lined with silver for Toy Town.

American toy buyers were frantic in the thought that their German source of supplies was cut off.

In desperation they turned to Winchendon and opened the door at which Toy Town long had been knocking fruitlessly.

But did Toy Town take advantage of the golden opportunity to profiteer in the crisis?

It did not! "We will show you what we have wished to show you for years," the toy makers said.

Christmas of 1914 found the market as well supplied with playthings as it ever had been.

But the toys were cheaper and better toys.

Surprised and gratified, America, instead of beating a thin path to the door of this maker of better mouse traps, tramped a wide, smooth boulevard.

In Winchendon today more than 1,000 of the town's 6,000 population are employed at the benches, lathes and jigsaws in three big factories.

The remaining 5,000 inhabitants are engaged indirectly, in various ways, in some phase of the industry.

Thus the entire town is reaping the benefit of one Yankee's jackknife and Minute Man foresight.

Not satisfied, however, with giving this boom industry to his adopted town, Mr. Converse later built his nation-famous Toy Town Tavern, converting 100 acres of wild land into a beautiful estate.

Thousands of visitors are attracted annually to the quaint town through the toy manufacturies and the hostelry's fame.

In Winter Winchendon is the mecca for enthusiasts who flock into the shadow of Monadnock for Winter sports.

In Summer the same enthusiasts, and others, visit there during vacation time.

Where once slovenly farmhouses, sagging and in disrepair, marred the landscape, neat cottages and pretty estates contribute to the town's beauty.

There is no dingy tenement section. There is a general air of prosperity everywhere.

Truly Morton E. Converse and the good people of Toy Town, in playing Santa Claus to America, have played Santa Claus to themselves.

Small wonder that Mr. Converse was sent to the Legislature and to the State Senate and that his memory is revered in Toy Town!

The Yankee whittler who made of himself the spark to flame his fellows into action and prosperity, has now gone, but his son, Atherton D. Converse, is carrying on where his father left off.

Atherton D. Converse will be recalled as the young man who, during the war, was director of the "Four Minute Men" for Massachusetts.

He is the sort of son successful men dream of.

If there were more sons of fathers, such as he turned out to be, there would be more Winchendons.

Under his direction and because he controls the bulk of Toy Town's toy industry, Winchendon has firmly entrenched itself as the leader in America's toy making.

It is contesting the place of Nuremburg as the principal toy manufacturing center of the world.

In one year, 300,000 drums go booming forth from its factories to retail shops in every section and corner of the nation that had to be shown.

Forty thousand hobby horses, sturdy and strong, prance in fiery fashion over the same route and to the same destinations.

Every day enough doll trunks to fill seven freight cars receive the last polishing rub and are sent to the shipping room.

The lumber used in the manufacture of wooden toys in one season would build a freight train four miles long.

But Toy Town is not working solely and selfishly for its own ends.

Mindful of its own rebuff in its struggling days, it has cast about the country, seeking domestic materials to use in its manufactures, giving its business to home industries rather than to those abroad.

Not coals of fire—merely sound business practice! Charity and business should begin at home. Toy Town knows this from weary experience.

Toy Town stands as a monument to Yankee ingenuity and courage.

It is a testimonial to the indomitable spirit of the Winchendon Minute Men, under the inspired leadership of one man.

More than anything, it is an object lesson for every community with a problem to solve and with opportunity just around the corner, alone and unnoticed.

Toy Town's accomplishment in whittling out its salvation can be duplicated by other New England communities.

Get out your mental jackknives and whittle!
